Wellington County Museum and Archives

Since its inception, Threadworks has been supported by the Wellington County Museum & Archives, located at 0536 Wellington County Rd 18, between Fergus and Elora. Housed in a magnificent limestone structure built in 1877 as the County House of Industry and Refuge, and renovated in 1987, an extraordinary exhibit space has been created in which to display both the traditional and the contemporary.

Regular Museum Hours are Monday to Friday 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Weekends and holidays, 12 - 4 p.m.
